IMBeR Synthesis and Future Planning Conference (Future Oceans 3)

Day 1 - Tuesday, 13 May 2025 Morning

08:30 - 08:40	Opening Session	Moderator: TBD
IMBeR Looking Inward: Synthesis of the past 10-year achievements (2016-2025)
	e I - Understanding multi-stressors of marine environments and achievements and ecosystem resilience and environmental management	Convenor: Jacob Carstensen Dongyan Liu
08:40 - 08:43	Grand Challenge I Introduction Jacob Carstensen, Aarhus University
08:43 - 09:02	Pathways of oligotrophication – hysteresis, shifting baselines, and legacy effects Jacob Carstensen, Aarhus University
09:02 - 09:21	Eastern Boundary Upwelling Ecosystems under a changing climate Marisol García-Reyes, Farallon Institute
09:21 - 09:40	The effect of nutrient limitation on temperature sensitivities of phytoplankton growth Hongbin Liu, The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology
09:40 - 10:00	BREAK
	e II - Achievements from IMBeR Grand Challenge 2 and opportunities for IMBeR 3.0: predictions and projections to actions, solutions and interventions	Convenor: Rowan Trebilco
10:00 - 10:03	Grand Challenge II Introduction Rowan Trebilco, CSIRO Environment, and Centre for Marine Socioecology
10:03 - 10:22	Detecting, attributing, and projecting global marine ecosystem and fisheries change: Fis Julia L. Blanchard, University of Tasmania	hMIP 2.0
10:22 - 10:41	TBD Elvira Poloczanska, Plymouth Marine Laboratory
10:41 - 11:00	TBD Gerald Singh, University of Victoria
Grand Challenge	e III - Blue Transformations: Governance for the ocean-climate-biodiversity nexus	Convenor: Derek Armitage
11:00 - 11:03	Grand Challenge III Introduction Derek Armitage, University of Waterloo
11:03 - 11:22	Solving Sustainability Challenges at the Food-Climate-Biodiversity Nexus William Cheung, University of British Columbia
11:22 - 11:41	Ocean biogeochemical cycles, agricultural revolutions and food system transformations Edward H Allison, WorldFish
11:41 - 12:00	Ocean, Coasts and Society: Reimagining blue transformations and governance at the int Prateep Kumar Nayak, University of Waterloo	ersections

LUNCH

12:00 - 13:30

Day 1 - Tuesday, 13 May 2025

Afternoon
