

Program

SESSION 2: ACHIEVEMENTS FROM IMBeR GRAND CHALLENGE 2 AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR IMBeR 3.0: FROM SCENARIOS, PREDICTIONS AND PROJECTIONS TO ACTIONS, SOLUTIONS AND INTERVENTIONS

SESSION 3: BLUE Transformations: GOVERNANCE FOR THE OCEAN-CLIMATE-BIODIVERSITY NEXUS

Wed. 14 May (UTC+8) 15:20 - 17:00 2nd floor Multi Function Room 1

Convenors Rowan Trebilco and Derek Armitage

Moderator Baker Matovu

15:20 - 15:25 Welcome and Introduction

Oral presentations
15:25 - 15:37	Ana Cinti [3-8] Small-scale fisheries in ecologically sensitive areas in Latin America and the Caribbean: Do Marine Protected Areas benefit fisheries governance?
15:37 - 15:49	Cecilia Engler (online) [3-5] Oceans and climate change adaptation: Tracking international law and policy developments and challenges
15:49 - 16:01	Sophia Jane Buchanan Barlow (online) [3-10] A sea of relationships: Relational wellbeing in the blue economy
16:01 - 16:13	Ricardo M. Roura [3-1] Southern Ocean marine protected areas and the ocean-climate-biodiversity nexus
16:13 - 16:25	Guanqiong Ye [1-4] Resilience of China's Blue Economy
16:25 - 16:37	Anil Ramchandra Kurhe (online) [1-13] Conservation of coastal and estuarine biodiversity: Challenges and opportunities
Speed talks
16:37 - 16:58	Zarhoune Said [4-4] Issues and challenges of governance in the maritime fisheries sector in Morocco: Towards sustainable management of fishery resources (Case of octopus)
	Taihuan Hu [3-7] Morphodynamic characteristics and classification of beaches in Hainan Island and its response to El Nino
	Esther Chacha Wambura [1-3] Impacts of ocean acidification on carbonate structures in coral reefs: A sedimentological and bioerosion analysis in Zanzibar
	Aidah Abdul Wahid [1-10] A comparative study of stock status and sustainable fisheries management of Pomadasys olivaceus across Pakistan's coastlines
	Katelene da Cruz Delgado (online) [3-9] Ex-post evaluation of fishery management policies on wild fisheries production in northern Cabo Verde: An example of mackerel scad (Decapterus macarellus , Carangidae)
	Yi Sui (online) [4-6] Can collective bargaining overcome institutional arbitrage in international employment? Evidence from China's ocean shipping industry
	Palash Naiya (online) [1-28] Assessing Socio-environmental impact and rehabilitation measures in response to recent cyclones: perspectives of coastal South Odisha and Indian Sundarbans
16:58 - 17:00	Discussion and Conclusions

